Summer University
in Vienna

ALTERNATIVE ECONOMIC AND MONETARY SYSTEMS

12 – 30 July 2027

Three weeks of lectures, workshops and bold ideas for an economy that works for people and planet.

ABOUT AEMS

Alternative Economic and Monetary Systems (AEMS) is a non-profit summer programme with BOKU University as academic lead and the Economy for the Common Good as main programme partner. Organised by OeAD student housing and supported by more than 100 academic and network partners, AEMS has built an alumni network of almost 600 changemakers from 90 nations.

KEY FACTS

Dates 12–30 July 2027, Vienna
Credits 5 ECTS (BOKU University)
Place Vienna, Austria
Language English
Fee from €1.390,-(excl. VAT & accommodation)
Scholarships for student and recent graduates available
Accommodation in a student dormitory available

AEMS IN SHORT

Programme
Lecturers from the academic & activist sectors, workshops, (panel) discussions, simulations, embodied practices, interdisciplinary group project, social and cultural events

Key topics
Understand the systemic scale of problems related to the growth imperative & discover differing approaches that redefine what our economy could look like

Participants
International crowd of changemakers - students and professionals from all academic fields, all age groups & all study levels

Group Project
Identify a social, ecological or economic challenge to address, form your group and turn your idea for systemic change into a fleshed-out pitch

Applications open December 2026

Places are allocated on a rolling basis – apply early!

www.summer-university.net · aems@oead.at · @aemsvienna

Up to 60 places – apply early!

5 ECTS accredited by BOKU University