
Alternative Economic and Monetary Systems (AEMS) Summer University

Vienna, 13th – 31st July 2026

A one-of-a-kind program providing innovative insights to tackle climate change at its core, finding new approaches for our economic and social systems. The participation fee is EUR 1.390.

What is included in the participation fee?

- Certificate of the University of Natural Resources and Life Sciences, Vienna (BOKU University) for 5 ECTS after successful completion
- All costs for lectures and lecture-related activities (workshops, simulation games, etc.)
- Public transport ticket within Vienna for the duration of the summer university
- 2 catered evening events as shown in the program (opening event and panel discussion)*
- 1 excursion to IIASA in Laxenburg*
- 1 dinner at a typical Austrian restaurant*
- 1 movie night at a cinema*
- 2 catered sports evenings (only takes place in good weather)*
- Some light refreshments during the lectures (like coffee, tea and fruits)
- Dedicated staff to support and answer your queries

What is not included?

- Travel tickets to and from Vienna
- Travel insurance
- Food and laundry during their stay in Austria
- Costs for obtaining a visa for Austria, if needed

Accommodation in a fully furnished student residence in Vienna for the three-week program costs an additional EUR 300. This fee includes a free one-week extension BEFORE AEMS 2026. Students can stay in the residence from 6th July until 3rd August (9 am) 2026.

Website: www.summer-university.net

Contact: aems@oead.at

*These are example events from past years. They may change, be removed, or new ones may be added.